

Storytime at the Library

Social Narrative

Today, I am going to the library for story time.

During story time, the librarian will read stories, sing songs, and dance with me and my new friends.

During story time, my caregiver and I can take a break if I need one.

The library has a soothing calming room with soft and quiet items to help me feel better.

At the end of story time, I will enjoy bubbles with my new friends.