

LIBRARY

Dear Parent,

Did you know that reading is the basis for learning?
Encouraging children to read and use the library is the best thing you can do to help them do better in school and continue learning throughout their lives.

Instructions:

Bring this completed form and your ID (with current address or other proof of residency) to your nearest library to finish the application process and receive your child's library card. If you cannot provide proof of address, we can mail your child's card to your home. Cards are free to residents and students in Mecklenburg County. Non-residents can obtain a card for an annual fee.

What can you find at your public library?

Libraries have books, magazines, DVDs, CDs, e-books, encyclopedias, and online resources for research, homework and just for fun. Trained staff can help students find exactly what they need. Most materials check out for three weeks. Libraries also provide study space and computers. If you have Internet access at home, many of the library's resources, even tutoring, are available online.

With twenty locations conveniently placed around the county, there's probably a public library close to where you live, so you can visit often.
